HEARTS IN THE HEARTLAND

156 hearts

2 states, 1 heartland

Hearts have represented citizens of Kansas City since the early 1900's when railroad workers wore heart pins to display their hometown spirit. Kansas City was one of the first Midwestern cities to embrace the idea being in the heartland of America. In fact, a heart patch was sewn on the 1942 Kansas City Monarchs Baseball Team championship jersey. By the mid 1990's, Mayor Cleaver II introduced a heart as the city's logo. The KC Heart t-shirts first appeared in 2011, when Charlie Hustle Clothing Brand put Kansas City's rich heritage of the heart in the city throughout the nation and around the globe. The Kansas City heart logo seen on apparel, souvenirs, and other branded merchandise "has come to represent a resurgence of pride felt by those living in or connected to the KC region." – according to ABOUT/Heartland legacy and inspiration@KC.org

The Parade of Hearts campaign saw Kansas City residents open their hearts to raise over $2 million for several organizations and artists in the metropolitan area. 123 local artists of varying ages and backgrounds designed 5 foot heart sculptures that depicted the artist's inspiration and unique story behind it. Anthony High, a graduate from the Kansas City Public School District, designed two of the hearts displayed in Spring 2022. Anthony taught art for 29 years at Northeast Middle School and Paseo Academy of Fine and Performing Arts before retiring from KCSD in 2011. He continues to teach art at Metropolitan Community College – Penn Valley and UMKC.

Anthony combined his passion for sports and art in his two heart creations commemorating both the Negro League Baseball and jazz in the Kansas City area: "The Monarch Tribute" and "Historic KC." He hopes his heart sculptures unite and bring people together. Anthony found it extremely gratifying, while visiting one of his hearts, to find several families from all corners of Kansas City there visiting neighborhoods they had never been to before taking photos of his art. He also was excited to share that his painting of a Kansas City jazz trumpeter was selected by Universal Studios to be on the television show "Bel-Air" along with art by one of his students. When asked if he had a message for fellow retirees and members, Anthony responded, "You are never too old to pursue your dreams...your next piece is always the best."

KCPSRS SUMMARY ANNUAL FINANCIAL REPORT FISCAL YEAR 2021

ABOUT THIS REPORT

The Kansas City Public School Retirement System (KCPSRS) is pleased to present the Summary Annual Financial Report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2021. This report provides a brief overview of the System's financial condition at fiscal year-end and provides a ten-year historical data of membership changes, investment returns, and the actuarial funded ratio.

Images of heart sculptures were used throughout this report to commemorate successes of local artists who participated in the Parade of Hearts that helped raise over $2 million for those impacted by the COVID-19 pandemic in the Kansas City metropolitan area. All funds raised stayed in our area and went towards Education, Arts & Culture, Small Minority-owned and Women-owned Businesses, Health & Wellness and Hospitality & Tourism.

This campaign made our communities stronger than ever much like the ripple effect of our retirees spending tens of millions of dollars in pension benefits positively impacts the local economy. In this report we acknowledge some of the Plan's achievements – a strong investment return, an award of excellence in financial reporting, and the growth in the number of active members thereby increasing the amount of contributions.

ABOUT KCPSRS

KCPSRS was established in 1944 as a defined benefit plan. The plan provides lifetime pension benefits determined at retirement under formulas prescribed by Missouri law, the pension benefit is not calculated based on investment returns or contributions. KCPSRS is also governed by policies adopted by the Board of Trustees. In accordance with Missouri statutes, the Board administers and operates the plan.

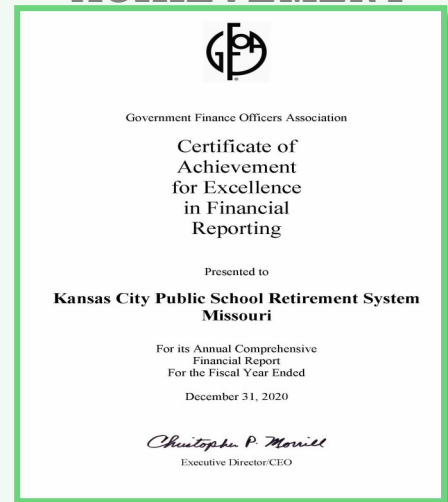

During the year ended December 31, 2021, there were 22 participating employers including the School District of Kansas City, Missouri; the Kansas City Public Library; the Retirement System; and the following charter schools: Académie Lafayette, Academy for Integrated Arts, Allen Village Charter School, Brookside Charter School, Citizens of the World Kansas City, Crossroads Charter Schools, DeLaSalle Charter School, Ewing Marion Kauffman School, Frontier

Schools, Genesis School, Inc., Gordon Parks Elementary, Guadalupe Center Schools, Hogan Preparatory Academy, Hope Leadership Academy, Kansas City International Academy, Kansas City Girl's Preparatory Academy, KIPP Endeavor Academy, Lee A. Tolbert Community Academy, Scuola Vita Nuova, and University Academy.

All regular, full-time employees of the participating employers become members of KCPSRS as a condition of employment. KCPSRS has 4,178 active, contributing members; 4,094 retirees or benefit recipients; and 568 inactive vested members.

Benefits are funded by member contributions, employer contributions, and net investment returns. Investment returns have historically provided the majority of the funding for pension benefits.

OUTSTANDING ACHIEVEMENT

The Government Finance Officers Association of the United States and Canada (GFOA) presented an Award for Excellence in Financial Reporting to the Kansas City Public School Retirement System for its Comprehensive Annual Financial Report for the fiscal year ended December 31, 2020.

LEARN MORE

The information in this summary report is taken from KCPSRS' more detailed Comprehensive Annual Financial Report (the Report), which is prepared in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting
